Thomas A. Dotson, Jr.

William J. Allison, AIA founded the firm in 1992 and it was renamed Allison Ramsey Architects in 1998. In May of 2004, the firm announced the opening of a second office in Asheville, North Carolina. From experience gained in local new urbanist developments, Allison Ramsey Architects has become instrumental in providing designs to Traditional Neighborhood developments throughout the country. Beyond architectural design, Allison Ramsey Architects provides neighborhood development consultation, implementation, and town planning services.

Allison Ramsey Architects has published four house plan collections: Carolina Inspirations: Volumes 1 and 2, Outbuildings, and North Carolina Collection. The firm has received Coastal Living's Best of the Coast and the National Association of Home Builders Best in American Living Award. Over the years Southern Living has chosen several of the firm's designs to be featured as Idea Houses, and Southern Living and Coastal Living regularly feature the firm's designs in their monthly issues. Affiliations include: American Institute of Architects, National Council of Architectural Registration Boards, Congress for New Urbanism, National Association of Home Builders, and Habitat for Humanity.
